WATER DAMAGE RESTORATION CARPETS, RUGS, UPHOLSTERY

When the winter rains bring unexpected water into your living space, fear not! At Kelly Cleaning & Supplies, our expert technicians stand ready to rescue your carpets, rugs, and upholstery from the clutches of water damage.

Our professional rug, carpet, and upholstery technicians are not just experts; they are your allies in the battle against moisture. Equipped with cutting-edge equipment, our high-power truck-mounted steam cleaning units are the cavalry charging in to restore your carpets and upholstery to their former glory. The powerful jets and intense heat leave no room for stains, odors, or water-damaged woes....

And for your treasured rugs deserving of royal treatment, enter The Ultimate Rug Spa. Our dedicated rug cleaning department employs specialized techniques to lavish care on your rugs. From delicate Persian masterpieces to sturdy, everyday rugs, each is treated with the attention it deserves.

If your precious rugs or furniture are sullied with a lingering odor left by excessive water residue, allow us to step into your home and whisk them away to our hydroxyl generator room in the Ultimate Rug Spa. Our hydroxyl generator deodorizing service works the same way as an ozone generator, just without the toxic fumes.

Don't let water worries linger. With Kelly Cleaning & Supplies, your home is shielded by a team that combines skill, technology, and a commitment to excellence. Because when water woes arise, we've got you covered – and then some.

Ah, when the heavens decide to give your rugs and carpets a soaking, it's time for a bit of Sieerge's magic! First things first, grab a few towels and blot away that excess water. Pop your soggy rug up—it'll thank you later. Now, let the place breathe with a breeze and a few fans, keeping the dreaded mold at bay.

But when your home enchantments need a bit of reinforcement, that's where Kelly Cleaning steps in, me kiddos. Our team of savvy technicians, armed with the wizardry of high-powered Truck-Mounted Steam Cleaning Units, transforms soaked carpets into pristine wonders. Trust me, it's not just a cleaning service; it's a revival for your rugs.

When the rain wreaks havoc, remember, Sieerge and Kelly Cleaning have your back. It's not just about drying; it's about bringing back the magic to your carpets, one Irish touch at a time.

Prepare for the imminent rains with a bit of proactive care to keep your home cozy and dry. Here's your strategy for the impending downpour!

- Clear Those Gutters: Your first line of defense? Your gutters. Ensure they're clean before the rains arrive, removing debris and leaves to ensure proper water flow away from your home's foundation.
- Storm Drain Duty: Take a moment to check your local storm drains. Clear them of leaves and trash to ensure smooth water drainage and prevent street flooding.
- Safeguard with Sandbags: For those in areas prone to heavy rain, having sandbags on hand can provide an extra layer of protection. Place them strategically to divert or block water, offering added security.

For a comprehensive shield against the wet onslaught, consider the expertise of Kelly Cleaning & Supplies. Our gutter cleaning services guarantee a smooth flow, preventing water from finding its way where it shouldn't. Rainy days are a given, but with a bit of preparation, your home can weather the storm with ease.
